ASI Events Presents Free New Generation Comedy Tour Jan. 19

SAN LUIS OBISPO -- Associated Students, Inc. Events presents a free night of laughs with The New Generation Comedy Tour on Thursday, Jan. 19, at 8 p.m. in Chumash Auditorium on the second floor of the University Union.

This free comedy show features KT Tatara, Justin Berkman and Sam Tripoli. The comedians are three of the most hilarious and accomplished stand-up comedians in the nation under the age of 25.

"These three guys will have you rolling in the aisles," said Monique Singh, student supervisor of weekly entertainment.

Tatara's unique opinions and unpredictable jokes leave people on the edge of their seats. His hip, creative performance covers a wide range of topics and makes him likable to any audience. The Washington D.C. native, now based in Los Angeles, is moving up quickly in the comedy world, winning numerous contests and performing all over the country.

Berkman, a former Stanford University gymnast and recent graduate, has quickly catapulted himself to success in the world of comedy. Tripoli has performed on the "Late Late Show with Craig Kilborn," Comedy Central's "Premium Blend" and has made numerous appearances on MTV.

Doors open at 7:30 p.m. and admission is free. Seating is limited and admittance will be on a first come, first served basis.
